Terms differ for group bookings. <sup>1</sup>Applies to Flight & Cruise packages only. Air Canada Vacations will pay the applicable airfare, including applicable taxes, fees, and service charges. Not applicable to non-refundable fares or fares with baggage fees. Cruise packages must be purchased through a travel agent, on aircanadavacations.com, or by calling our Cruise Department at 1-866-529-2079. Cruise package must be the same as the original purchase (same travel dates, class of service, cabin, etc.). Lower rates must be available at time of request. Group rates, membership programs, promotion codes or other Travel Agent promotions not offered to the general public, including but not limited to travel agent rebates, are ineligible. All claims must be submitted at time of booking. Flight refund applies to all passengers on file. Can be applied only once. <sup>2</sup>The flight and cruise must be booked together with Air Canada Vacations. Flights will be rebooked depending on the next available flight aboard Air Canada or Air Canada Rouge, subject to availability. No refund will be given for missed days of cruise. Not applicable to Force Majeure situations or for other reasons beyond the control of the air carrier. Hotel accommodations and any related land expenses associated with the delay are the sole responsibility of the client. However, insofar as it is applicable, Air Canada and Air Canada Rouge will fulfill all their obligations under the Air Passenger Protection Regulations. Does not replace travel insurance. May be discontinued or changed at any time without notice. Other conditions may apply and are available at the time of booking. <sup>3</sup>Subject to change without notice. When booked with cruise through Air Canada Vacations.
